Committee's narrative:

We met during fall and winter quarter, and the main issues we dealt with were 1) the increase in international students, coming both as freshmen and as community college transfers, who will be needing ESL writing support, at a time when the support budget is may be further reduced; 2) concerns about transfer-student achievement and whether, or what kinds of, support might be needed. The committee prepared a draft report. Sent to Undergraduate Council to be discussed on what the committee feels is the minimum support needed for international students in terms of English speaking and writing support.
