

Committee on Courses of Instruction (COCI) Grading Variance Deadlines

The deadline for grading variance petitions is the 15th day of instruction for each quarter.

If you would like your grading variance petitions considered for Fall 2017, the committee must receive your petition by October 17, 2017.

If you would like your grading variance petitions considered for Winter 2018, the committee must receive your petition by January 29, 2018 (taking the MLK campus holiday into account).

If you would like your grading variance petitions considered for Spring 2018, the committee must receive your petition by April 20, 2018.