

Dear Colleagues,

Early in winter quarter the Davis Division Committee on Elections, Rules, & Jurisdiction (CERJ) issued advice clarifying the merit and promotion appeal vs. reconsideration process. The advice clarifying existing Davis Division Bylaws 42 and 45 is available online at:

http://academicsenate.ucdavis.edu/cerj/manual/dd\_bylaws.cfm#42-

The Advice generated a review and clarification of the appeal vs. reconsideration process between the Committee on Academic Personnel: Oversight Subcommittee (CAPOC) and Appellate Subcommittee (CAPAC). In an effort to implement the changes with clarity, I have attached a process flowchart.

You can view the CERJ advice online at:

http://academicsenate.ucdavis.edu/cerj/advice/2010-2011/CAPAC\_20Advice\_corrected.pdf

Best Wishes,

Bob

Robert Louis Powell III
Professor & Chair, Department of Chemical Engineering & Materials Science Chair,
Davis Division of the Academic Senate Professor,
Department of Food Science & Technology
University of California Bainer Hall Davis, CA 95616

Davis Division Committee on Academic Personnel Appeal and Reconsideration Process

