Nominations for the 2018 Distinguished Scholarly Public Service Award

The University of California has a long tradition of service to the state and the people of California. Faculty members use their expertise in teaching, research or professional competence to make unpaid contributions to local, statewide, national, or international public arenas. The Academic Senate Distinguished Scholarly Public Service Award offers the opportunity to honor exceptional faculty who continue the tradition and demonstrate the commitment of the Davis campus to public service.

The Senate Public Service Committee submits the names of the following three individuals in nomination for the 2018 Distinguished Scholarly Public Service Award:

Jeannie Darby, Professor, Civil and Environmental Engineering, College of Engineering

Professor Darby made a huge and lasting improvement in the lives of people in California’s San Joaquin Valley by drawing attention to the effects of nitrate contamination in small system drinking water. When UC Davis released the first comprehensive scientific investigation of nitrate for the California State Legislature in 2012, Professor Darby wrote the chapter on how to treat nitrate in drinking water. Then she went on to actually implement on-the-ground solutions aimed at improving these small water systems. It is estimated that Professor Darby improved drinking water conditions for more than 100,000 people living in the Valley.

Gregory Downs, Professor, History, College of Letters and Science

Professor Downs successfully campaigned to establish a United States National Monument to the Era of Reconstruction, which is now part of the National Parks System. In 2013, Professor Downs, along with Professor Kate Masur of Northwestern University, enlisted the American Historical Association to seek public commemoration of Reconstruction and its struggles during and after the American Civil War to transform via the U.S. Government economics and politics that relied on slavery into functioning free markets. Professor Downs traveled extensively, consulted widely, and drawing on his own scholarly expertise, kept the long process of working with various constituencies on course. In January 2017, President Barack Obama proclaimed a national monument to Reconstruction in Beaufort, South Carolina.

Calvin O. Qualset, Professor Emeritus, Plant Sciences, College of Agricultural and Environmental Sciences

Professor Emeritus Qualset has made outstanding contributions to agriculture as an expert on agricultural biodiversity conservation. He has been instrumental in developing over 24 new varieties of wheat, oat and triticale since joining the faculty of UC Davis in 1967. Professor Qualset has helped shape many of the activities and processes in the United States and abroad that seek to conserve the genetic diversity of crops. He has graciously given his time to numerous institutions including the National Science Foundation, the USDA, the Environmental Protection Agency, and many more to provide sound, science-based advice aimed at improving genetic conservation.
Recommendations for the 2018 Distinguished Teaching Awards

The Academic Senate Distinguished Teaching Awards Committee—David Osleger (Chair), Kathryn Olmsted, Lynne Isbell, Mary Lassaline and Leopoldo Bernucci recommend the following faculty be approved as recipients of the 2018 Distinguished Teaching Award in the respective categories.

Distinguished Teaching Award – Undergraduate Teaching

Professor Jared T. Shaw, Department of Chemistry

Jared Shaw is an innovative educator, dedicated mentor, and untiring promoter of science education. Students are challenged and motivated in his courses on organic chemistry, and they praise his teaching style as innovative and even inspirational. He reaches out to students from underrepresented groups, getting them involved in research, helping them get into grad school, and guiding them into careers as professionals. Dr. Shaw is an untiring advocate of public outreach. His monthly ‘Science Cafes’ are extremely popular, connecting the academic scientist with the general public to enhance communication and understanding about science.

Professor John Eadie, Department of Wildlife, Fish and Conservation Biology

John Eadie is notable for his welcoming and engaging style in the classroom, as well as his sincere concern for the well-being of his students. His courses in Wildlife Biology and specifically on wild birds are extremely popular, even legendary, with students enthralled by his creative descriptions and extemporaneous stories. And John does it while maintaining high expectations and instructional rigor. Not only do students at all levels rave about his charisma and ability to translate complex information in a stimulating manner, but his colleagues laud his innate talent as an educator and mentor as well.

Professor Gail L. Patricelli, Department of Evolution and Ecology

Professor Gail Patricelli excels at teaching many different kinds of courses: huge lecture classes, small upper-division courses, breadth classes for non-majors, and individualized mentoring of undergraduates in research. She has supervised more than 300 undergraduates in laboratory and field projects. She’s known for her innovative assignments. She asks students to find case studies of “Baloney Science” – examples of distortion of scientific research. Students compare their case study to the original scientific publication and analyze the false representation of the findings. In their evaluations, her students identify Patricelli’s dedication, enthusiasm, and creativity as the qualities that make her an extraordinary teacher.
Distinguished Teaching Award – Graduate and Professional Teaching

Professor Patricia Pesavento, Department of Pathology, Microbiology and Immunology

Patricia Pesavento is a Professor in the Department of Pathology, Microbiology and Immunology in the School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Pesavento's enthusiasm, competence, and passion for science and teaching are renowned. She employs innovative teaching strategies that bring pathology to life for veterinary students, and has been instrumental in the development of a learner-centered emphasis in the pathobiology graduate group curriculum. Anatomic pathology residents whom she has mentored credit her with seamlessly providing support and instruction while allowing for individualized professional development. Her graduate students appreciate that Dr. Pesavento uniformly values their contributions and treats them as colleagues.

Associate Professor Annaliese K. Franz, Department of Chemistry

Annaliese Franz is an Associate Professor of Chemistry whose workshops in effective teaching and foundational seminars have been lauded for providing graduate students with valuable tools for future success in academia, industry, science policy, or other professional fields. Her graduate students describe her mentoring style as flexible and designed around the individual needs of each of her students, but she is also always approachable, and “always interested, involved, and inspirational.” Students and colleagues alike view her as extremely dedicated and passionate about her work, a tireless advocate for her students, and a strong role model for women in STEM.

Associate Professor Mark Jerng, Department of English

Mark Jerng is an Associate Professor in the Department of English whose graduate teaching record in the field of modern American literature is of an exceptionally high caliber. Students find in him a true and ideal mentor who is able to work with them in areas such as Asian-American Literacy and Cultural Studies, praising him for his high level of expertise, depth of knowledge, and extensive understanding of the subject matters he teaches. Both colleagues and students also speak with great admiration of Professor Jerng’s extreme dedication, generosity, kindness, and the uncommon support he provides for his students, preparing them for their professional careers.
The Faculty Distinguished Research Award Committee unanimously recommends Professor Carlito Lebrilla, Professor in the Department of Chemistry, as the recipient of the 2018 Faculty Distinguished Research Award.

Professor Lebrilla’s research is primarily in the field of bioanalytical chemistry, specifically in developing advanced methods for the analysis of oligosaccharides and glycoconjugates in diverse biological samples, and the application of these data for understanding the role of these compounds in health and disease. As one example, Professor Lebrilla’s research provided the critical underpinnings for the success of collaborative research with other UC Davis faculty that identified milk oligosaccharides as essential for promoting the healthy growth of children with undernutrition, which is a significant and pressing global health issue. This work has attracted significant attention and has had a broad impact with general interest articles in scholarly journals. This work also highlights UC Davis and the contributions of its faculty in topics of utmost concern for World Health.
PROPOSED REVISION OF DAVIS DIVISION REGULATION 507:

Master of Business Administration in Requirements for Higher Degrees

Submitted by Brad M. Barber, Associate Dean, Graduate School of Management.

Endorsed by the Graduate Council and the Executive Council.

Rationale: Regulations governing the Master of Business Administration (MBA) are out of date and should be amended to be consistent with those of other UC MBA programs (e.g., UC Berkeley and UCLA) and other Master’s degree programs at UC Davis.

Proposed Revision: Davis Division Regulation 507 shall be amended as follows. Deletions are indicated by strikeout; additions are in bold type.

507. Master of Business Administration

(A) The candidate must complete 72 units (approximately 24 courses) of acceptable graduate, professional, and undergraduate courses.

(A) The candidate must have completed a program of graduate study as specified by the Faculty of the Graduate School of Management and approved by the Graduate Council subject to divisional and systemwide regulations, including those specifying limits on units for part-time students.

(B) The core courses may be waived and the total course load reduced for students who have completed equivalent courses at another accredited institution of higher learning. However, students must complete a minimum of 14 courses in the program to qualify for the degree.

(B) A comprehensive final exam or equivalent is required of each candidate.

(C) A part-time student may enroll in no more than two courses per quarter (excluding lower division remedial courses). (App. 10/28/75; Am. 10/30/89)
PROPOSED REVISION OF DAVIS DIVISION REGULATION 538:

Examinations

Submitted by Randall Larson-Maynard, Senior Editor/Curriculum Coordinator/Webmaster, Office of the University Registrar.

Endorsed by the Executive Council.

Rationale: Update regulation to reflect that the General Catalog is no longer being printed.

Proposed Revision: Davis Division Regulation 538 shall be amended as follows. Deletions are indicated by strikeout; additions are in bold type.

538. Examinations

(A) Except under certain specified circumstances, Senate Regulation (SR) 772 requires that final examinations be given in all undergraduate courses. Final examinations may be given in graduate courses. (Am. 4/26/82)

(B) At the instructor’s option, a final examination may be wholly or in part of the take-home type. In accordance with SR 772(A), in undergraduate courses, the writing time of a take-home final examination and an in-class final examination together may not exceed three hours. (Am. 5/4/04) (Am. 9/1/2017)

(C) In each course for which a final examination is required, each student shall have the right to take a final examination (or, when the instructor has so opted, to submit a take-home examination) at the time and on the date published in the Class Search Tool. For on-line courses, the University Registrar will offer to the instructor of each on-line class the option to have the final in any of the TBA slots. Additional options for administration of final exams in on-line courses include the use of testing centers, on-line proctoring services, and take-home examinations. Students shall be notified of the time and place of the final on or before the first day of instruction. (Am. 5/4/04) (Am. 9/1/2015, 9/1/2017)

(D) In each course for which a midterm examination is required, each student shall have the right to take a midterm examination (or, when the instructor has so opted, to submit a take-home examination) during one of the scheduled meetings of the class published in the Class Search Tool. (Am. 4/26/82; 5/4/04) (Am. 9/1/2017)

(E) Holding a final or midterm examination (or setting a deadline for submission of a take-home examination) at a time not specified in (C) or (D) requires the mutual consent of the instructor and all students involved in the change. Any student who does not consent in writing to the different time must be permitted to take an examination (and/or submit a take-home examination) at the officially scheduled time. A student who consents in writing to the change of examination time waives the right cited in (C) or (D). (Am. 3/13/95 and effective 9/1/95; 5/4/04) (Am. 9/1/2017)
(F) Any departures from the published examination schedule should be carried out so as not to disadvantage students who are unable to accept the alternative examination schedule. An in-class final examination may not be rescheduled for a date earlier than the first day of final week. The due date for a take-home final examination may not be rescheduled for a date earlier than the first day of finals week. In the case of on-line courses, the published examination schedule is that announced no later than the first day of class in accordance with 538(C). (Am. 10/26/87 and effective 9/1/88) (Am. 3/13/95 and effective 9/1/95; 5/4/04) (Am. 9/1/2017)

(G) A student who is improperly denied the right cited in (C) or (D) may file a petition with the Executive Council by the end of the next regular term, for appropriate action.

(H) In accordance with current law, students with documented disabilities may be entitled to in-class accommodations. The student shall provide a letter from the campus Student Disability Center (SDC) with a recommendation for those academic accommodations that the instructor is responsible for providing. It is the student’s responsibility to request accommodations as soon as possible; this notification must be made within a period of time which allows the university a reasonable opportunity to evaluate the request and offer necessary adjustments. The instructor has a legal obligation to provide recommended academic accommodations, unless the instructor can demonstrate that the accommodations will fundamentally alter the nature of the academic demands made of the student, or decrease the standards and types of academic performance. It is the responsibility of the University to provide recommended physical accommodations. No accommodation shall require facilities or personnel that can be demonstrated to result in undue financial and administrative burdens to the University. The instructor should consult with the student and the SDC if there are any questions or concerns. If the instructor and the SDC cannot arrive at a mutually agreeable accommodation, the matter shall be resolved by a committee convened by the Vice Chancellor - Student Affairs that includes the instructor, the department chair, and a representative from the SDC. (En. 6/8/87; Am 11/25/96; Am 4/14/08) (Am. 6/8/2012)

(I) An instructor may release to individual students their original final examinations (or copies thereof) at any time. Otherwise the instructor shall retain final examination materials, or a copy thereof, until the end of the next regular term, during which period students shall have access to their examinations. (En. 5/25/77; Renum. 6/8/87)

(J) Paragraphs (A) through (I) of this Regulation shall appear in the final examination area of the Office of the University Registrar website. (En. 5/24/76; Am. and renum. 5/25/77; 6/8/87)

(Am. 6/6/89; 6/4/08)

(B) Faculty members of the college who teach in one or more interdepartmental programs but who do not hold at least a one-half time appointment in an established department of the college shall vote for interdepartmental representatives to the College Assembly. The number of such interdepartmental representatives shall be determined in the same way as the number of representatives for regular departments. It shall be based on the number of individuals who fall in the category described rather than FTE. Solicitation of nominations and balloting for interdepartmental representatives shall be supervised by the Executive Committee. In discharging this responsibility, the Executive Committee and its designated agent(s) shall follow the procedures for such elections in regular departments, consulting all faculty members in the category described. (Am. 2/27/75; 6/4/08)

(C) The College Assembly shall meet at least once each year during the spring, and otherwise at such times as the Chair of the Executive Committee believes that the business before the college warrants calling a meeting. Attendance at such meetings shall be recorded and published with the minutes of the Assembly, and the minutes shall be distributed to all members of the Faculty of the college. Upon written request of ten voting members of the College Assembly, the Chair or, in that officer’s absence, the Vice-Chair must call a meeting. (Am. 6/1/78; 6/4/08)

(D) A majority of the elected voting members of the College Assembly shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of legislative business (i.e., changes to the Bylaws, Regulations, or Guidelines). A quorum for the transaction of all other business shall be 25% of the elected voting members. Quorum requirements for an electronic ballot shall be the same as for any meeting. (Am. 6/4/08)
(E) Balloting. During the Spring Quarter the Chair of each department shall solicit nominations of a number not less than one and one-half times the number of Assembly members to be elected, including at least one candidate of a rank below Professor, for each position to be filled. The latter requirement may be waived only with consent of the Executive Committee.

1. The departments shall elect representatives during the spring. All department members who are also Academic Senate (Davis) members shall be entitled to vote.

2. Departmental members shall be entitled to cast votes equal to the number of representatives to be elected from their department. The candidate(s) with the most votes shall be elected.

3. At the time of a regular or special election a department may elect one or more alternate representatives (prescribing their order of priority) to serve when a regular departmental representative is temporarily unable to serve. (En. 5/29/80)

4. In the event of a vacancy in a department’s representation, the Chair of that department shall arrange a special election according to the procedures of this section to fill the balance of the term of the vacant representative or alternate representative. The term of service of a replacement representative or alternate representative begins five days after the Secretary of the Faculty has been notified of the election.

5. Representatives shall be elected for two-year terms. These terms shall be staggered so that approximately one-half of the Assembly is elected each year.

6. The department Chair shall notify the Secretary of the Faculty of the results of the election.

(Am. 6/4/08)

(F) Any member of the college faculty may attend and speak at College Assembly meetings, but only members of the Assembly may make or second motions or vote; members of a standing or special committee of the college may move for, but not second, the acceptance of reports or recommendations, or amendments thereto presented by their committees.

(G) The Faculty may request a mail ballot of any policy decision made by the College Assembly. Upon receipt of a petition signed by thirty-five members of the college faculty, the Executive Committee must refer the matter to the Faculty for its determination. The Faculty decision shall be binding. (En. 3/6/73)
Any decision taken by the Executive Committee may be brought to the Assembly floor for reconsideration if a request for reconsideration is made thirty days or less following its announcement in the circulated minutes of the Executive Committee. A request for reconsideration requires a petition of either (a) ten voting members of the Assembly or (b) any thirty-five members of the Faculty. The Executive Committee must refer the matter as expeditiously as possible to a meeting of the Assembly. A two-thirds majority of all voting members present shall be required to override any decision of the Executive Committee. (En. 6/1/81)

PART V. COMMITTEES

TITLE I. APPOINTMENT AND TENURE

10. (A) Standing committees, except as otherwise specifically provided in these Bylaws, shall be appointed each year at the last regular meeting of the Executive Committee. Standing committees not approved by the Executive Committee at that time shall be approved as early as possible. The term of service for members of standing committees shall be one year, extending from September 1 through the following August 31, or, in the case of approval by the Executive Committee after September 1, from the date of appointment through the following August 31. (Am. 11/14/60; 3/6/73; 6/4/08)

(B) Each standing committee shall report its recommendations for action to the Executive Committee. Each standing committee shall formulate standards and policies which will ensure uniformity and continuity in the fulfillment of its duties, such standards and policies to be subject to review by the College Assembly, after approval by the Executive Committee. (Am. 3/6/73)

(C) Each standing committee shall submit directly to the College Assembly an annual written report summarizing its activities. (Am. 3/6/73; 6/4/08)

(D) Any standing committee may report directly to the College Assembly at any time on any recommendation made to the Executive Committee upon which the Executive Committee has failed, after a reasonable time, to act or has taken action substantially at variance with the recommendation. Before such direct report to the College Assembly is made, a standing committee shall notify the Executive Committee in writing of its intention and include reasons therefor. A similar option may be exercised by the Committee on Individual Majors.

(C) When in the opinion of a department or committee, a student cannot profitably continue in the program, the chairperson shall notify the Dean of the college in writing, indicating the basis for such opinion and the probable causes for the student’s lack of success. In such cases, the student may be required to withdraw from the major.
67. Multiple Majors

(A) Students may elect to declare simultaneously more than one major program within the college or a combination of majors offered by the college and other undergraduate colleges on the Davis campus. Admission into a multiple major program is subject to the approval of the departments or curriculum committees in charge of the majors involved and the Dean of the college. (B) Combinations of majors offered by a single department or curriculum committee are prohibited. The Executive Committee is authorized to grant exceptions to this restriction to departments or curriculum committees on the basis of sound programmatic justification. With the written support of the department or committee, a student may petition the Executive Committee or its designee for an exception.

(C) Cross-college multiple majors are not allowed when the majors involved are available within a single college as well.

(D) Departments, curriculum committees, divisions and other teaching units, singly or collectively, as well as faculty advisers have the right to disapprove a student’s request for a multiple major. If disapproval of particular combinations of majors is established as the policy of a department, curriculum committee, division, or other teaching unit, the unit making such decisions must notify the Dean of the college so that the prohibition can be included in informational materials for students and advisers.

(E) Approval of a request to declare more than one major is subject to criteria specifying minimal overlap between the programs.

   (1) Eighty percent of the upper division units offered in satisfaction of course and unit requirements of each major must be unique, that is, they may not be offered in satisfaction of requirements of any of the other majors involved.

   (2) When unit requirements of the major programs included in a request differ, the major with the smaller number of upper division units required shall be used to compute the minimal unit difference that must be met.

   (3) In determining that the 80 percent requirements of 67(E)(1) have been satisfied, advisers and the Dean must count both specific courses and courses with substantial overlap of content as common to the majors involved.

(F) The terms of Regulations 65 and 66 apply to multiple majors. (En. 6/1/81)
69. Minors. Departments and teaching programs may establish optional minors, including interdisciplinary minors. An interdisciplinary minor is defined as one which is sponsored by a single department or program and for which the course requirements are divided approximately equally between two departments or programs or are taken from three or more departments or programs. A student may elect to satisfy the requirements of one or more minors. Completion of a minor shall not be required for the degree. At the request of the student, completion of minors will be certified on the student’s undergraduate transcript. (Am. 6/6/89)

(A) A minor shall consist of 18 to 24 units in upper division courses specified by the department or curriculum committee offering the minor.

(1) When unique subject matter essential to the academic coherence of the program is offered only at the lower division level, a single lower division course may be included as part of the minor in lieu of an equal number of units in upper division courses.

(B) (1) Not more than one course applied to the satisfaction of requirements in the major program shall be accepted in satisfaction of the requirements of a minor.

(2) No course used to satisfy the requirements of one minor shall be applied toward any other minor.

(C) The minimum GPA acceptable for any minor is 2.00.

(D) (1) Except in the special case of interdisciplinary minors, students cannot receive certification of a minor offered by the department or curriculum committee of the student’s major. On the basis of programmatic justification, the Executive Committee may grant variances to this prohibition to departments or curriculum committees. With the written support of the department or curriculum committee, a student may petition the Executive Committee or its designee for an exception. (Am. 6/6/89)

(2) Students in the college may receive certification of completion of an approved minor offered by another undergraduate college on the Davis campus. (Renum. 5/30/96)

(E) Students with a 2.00 or greater GPA in upper division Letters and Science courses offered in satisfaction of a minor may declare that minor by petitioning the Office of the Dean. (Renum. 5/30/96)

(En. 2/6/79; 6/2/80; 6/1/81; Am. 6/6/89; 5/30/96; 6/2/16)
Section 6. Educational Innovation

70. Experimental Liberal Arts Curricula. As alternatives for graduation under the provisions of 50, except for 50(A)(2), experimental four-year liberal arts curricula may be authorized by the Faculty of the college upon recommendation of the Executive Committee. Such authorization shall be for limited periods of time, but not for more than seven years. Each curriculum shall be reviewed yearly by the Executive Committee, which may close an experimental curriculum to new enrollments at any time prior to the expiration of the period of approval. In the last year of the period of approval, the Executive Committee shall evaluate the program to determine whether it shall be made permanent. If a program is approved for continuation, it shall be submitted to the Faculty for enactment in legislative form as a regular program of the college; failing approval of the Faculty, it shall be discontinued.

Section 7. Enrollment Regulations and Grades

73. Academic Advising. Academic advising in the college is mandatory and is shared between the department/programs and the Office of the Dean. Students are required to consult an adviser at several points in their academic careers.

(A) (1) Each student is required to meet with an adviser at least once per academic year. The structure of the Mandatory Advising program shall be approved by the Faculty Executive Committee.

(2) Students with 75 units or more who change majors within the college or enter into a major in the college must submit an academic plan with their change of major request.

(B) During the junior year, each student shall obtain a formal degree check from the Office of the Dean.

(C) A student who anticipates accumulating 200 units shall develop with the adviser in the major a written, quarter-by-quarter plan of study that will lead to the earliest possible attainment of educational objectives and satisfaction of degree requirements. The plan shall be submitted to the Office of the Dean within one quarter after the term in which they exceed 200 units.

(D) The Dean is authorized to deny registration to students who do not comply with the advising requirements specified in (A), (B) and (C) above.

(En. 6/1/81) (Am.6/15/2017)
74. Study List Regulations

In calculating study list totals, Entry Level Writing (WKLD), other remedial courses approved by the Committee on Courses of Instruction, foreign language courses which duplicate high school training (see 51(F)), and repeat of courses in which D, F, or NP grades have been earned will be counted for the full unit value (Am. 6/15/2017)

75. A student who has accumulated 225 or more units is allowed to register only with the permission of the Dean. (Am. 6/1/81)

76. Courses on a Passed/Not Passed Basis. Not less than three-fourths of the units taken at the Davis campus and presented for graduation must be in courses taken for a letter grade. Courses graded P in accordance with DD Reg. A545(C) are counted toward the three-fourths. The limits imposed by DD Reg. 545(B) apply to students in the College of Letters and Science.

Section 8. Courses of Instruction and Examinations

80. Resident instruction is defined as that which is offered to students in regular attendance during the fall, winter, spring, and summer terms. Courses in resident instruction at the University of California or at other accredited postsecondary institutions may be counted in satisfaction of a major program and degree requirements.

81. Summer Session Courses. Students who desire to satisfy specific subject requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science in University summer sessions may use only those courses which are equivalent in subject matter and in unit credit to courses offered in the fall, winter, or spring terms, listed as acceptable in meeting requirements for those degrees and designated by the same numbers with the prefix “S”.

82. Extension Courses

(A) Students who desire to satisfy in University Extension, University of California, major program or specific subject requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science may use only those courses which are equivalent to courses offered in regular sessions listed as acceptable in meeting requirements for those degrees. (See AS Regs. 810, 182.)

(B) Extension courses do not count toward satisfaction of the residence requirement described in 53 and AS Reg. 630, or the grade point requirements described in 66(A) and AS Reg. 634.
Section 9. Honors

88. Honor Students

(A) An honor list shall be prepared each quarter and shall be made public.

(B) Minimum standards for inclusion on the quarterly honor list are prescribed by the Davis Division of the Academic Senate. (Am. 6/2/80)

(C) The minimum quarterly grade point average for inclusion on the honor list of the college shall be greater than 3.3. (Am. 6/2/80)

89. Honors with the Bachelor’s Degree

(A) Students may qualify for Honors, High Honors, and Highest Honors with the bachelor’s degree. The minimum grade-point standard for Honors, as prescribed by the Davis Division of the Academic Senate and published in the General Catalog, shall be the minimum grade-point standard for the award of all categories of Honors by the College. (Am. 6/6/89)

(B) No student shall be awarded honors if more than 8 units of grade “Incomplete” appear on the transcript. Individual appeals from the regulation may be approved by the Committee on Honors. (Am. 6/2/80)

(C) A student who meets the prescribed minimum standards shall be awarded Honors by the committee on its own authority.

(D) High and Highest Honors

(1) A qualified student shall be recommended for High or Highest Honors by the department or committee supervising the major program. The recommendation shall be made to the Committee on Honors and be based upon criteria developed by the department or program in accordance with Reg. 90.

(2) A final overall GPA must be attained which would qualify the student for graduation with Honors as prescribed by minimum standards of the Davis Division of the Academic Senate.

(3) The department or program recommendations on whether to grant High or Highest Honors shall be based on the student’s overall work and work in the major program, primarily the senior project.
(4) Special requirements for High or Highest Honors imposed by departments or programs, must be published in the General Catalog.

(5) The chairperson shall canvass the Faculty of the department or the faculty members of the curriculum committee and shall forward the results of the canvass, including dissenting opinions, if any, to the Committee on Honors.

(6) The Committee on Honors shall evaluate the departmental recommendations and review the files of all qualified students who are not recommended for High or Highest Honors. In doubtful cases the committee shall confer with the department or curriculum committee involved. The decisions of the Committee on Honors shall be final. The Committee on Honors shall notify departments and curriculum committees of its decisions, including its reasons for rejection of recommendations, if any.

(7) Qualified students not recommended for High or Highest Honors shall be awarded Honors. (Am. 6/2/80)

(E) Students who receive Honors, High Honors, or Highest Honors with the bachelor's degree shall be so designated in their diplomas and in the List of Certificates, Degrees, and Honors, together with specification of their respective major programs and grade of honors.

(Am. 6/88; Eff. 9/90)

90. Honors Programs. There may be established for each major program, an Honors Program which shall include satisfactory completion of a program consisting of an honors-level research project, research paper, senior thesis, or other project of a comparable nature as defined by the department or committee, any of which shall require a minimum of 6 units of course work devoted to the project, distributed over at least two quarters.

(1) Eligibility to participate in an honors program shall be extended to students who have completed at least 135 units and have attained a grade point average of at least 3.5 in courses required for the major.

(2) Departments or committees supervising the major program may require a suitable course or course sequence, or other requirement such as a general examination, as part of such a program.

(3) The Committee on Honors may approve programs which are at slight variance with these Regulations.

(Am. 6/88; Eff. 9/89)
TO:  The Representative Assembly of the Davis Division of the Academic Senate

For the 2017-2018 academic year, 87,789 students applied for undergraduate admission: 16,839 new transfers and 70,950 new freshmen. The Committee does not evaluate all freshmen and transfer applicants to the University. Only eligible EOP freshmen are read by the Committee; those not read by the Committee were evaluated on the basis of their grades and test scores alone. Transfer applicants must have submitted a letter of recommendation in order to be evaluated by the Committee; those who did not submit the letter of recommendation are considered for undergraduate scholarships, but are not eligible for bonus points through the review.

The Committee, comprised of members representing all of the colleges, first met on November 15, 2016 during the Fall Quarter to organize for the year. At this meeting, committee members reviewed the 2015-2016 Annual Report and the calendar for 2016-2017. They also discussed committee expectations and workload. Another Winter Quarter meeting was held on January 24, 2017 to discuss the reading procedures for application evaluation. Shortly thereafter, the Committee began receiving and reviewing 2016-2017 scholarship applications. In order to be considered, all applicants had to have a minimum 3.25 GPA. The Committee evaluated all complete continuing student applications (1062); they evaluated the eligible transfer student applications from those who submitted a letter of recommendation (113) and eligible freshmen EOP applications (1017). All applications were read twice, and scores were entered by mid-April 2017.

A total of 2192 applications needed to be evaluated for the 2017-2018 scholarship award year. Because each application is to be reviewed by at least two Committee members, 4384 reads needed to be completed within a six week period. This year we had 27 members, not including the Chair. If all 27 members, read equal amounts of applications, they would each need to review about 162 files; this equates to about 27 hours of work per person, given a 7 – 10 minute/file reading rate. Unfortunately, not all 27 members read their quota, leaving an undue burden on others. During this cycle, all but one members were active; however, there were four members that read 125 applications or less. Almost half of the members read 200 or more applications this cycle. Of those, one read 268 and the other 248. Readings were officially completed on May 5th, a full two months after the original March 8th deadline.

The University Medalist Sub-Committee reviewed the nomination packets of and interviewed four finalists on April 25, 2017. The group decided upon, Srujan Kopparapu, Biological and Molecular Biology major from the College of Biological Sciences as the 2016-2017 University Medal recipient.

The Committee met again on May 15, 2017 to review the year’s activities. Additionally, we discussed upcoming changes with the Financial Aid and Scholarships’ implementation of a new scholarship application system. For the 2018-2019 application cycle, we will be using Academic Works, an established scholarship management system. With the implementation of this new product, we will potentially lose some of the functionality we had with our homegrown system, but gain reliability and potential to use it as an enterprise product for the campus. The Committee was able to provide input on what information they would like to see and necessities for evaluating scholarship applications.
Statistics for the eligible applicants for 2017-2018 and the 2016-2017 recipient and award process are attached.
