Dear Professor Powell,

The L&S Executive Committee has discussed the proposed new APM 365 (Appointments and Promotions: Associate University/Law Librarian and Assistant University/Law Librarian) and has the following comments:

- The committee would be in a better position to provide advice on the draft if the rationale for proposing the new APM section had been included.
- What exactly is entailed in stating that the individuals in these positions “can represent the campus” (II.3.f.1)? Does this imply their actions can extend into the academic realm? Or, will they simply represent the campus at system-wide meetings? Further revision to clarify the intent of this statement would be helpful.

Sincerely,

Patricia C. Boeshaar, Chair
