

Davis Division Academic Senate

Request for Consultation Responses

Sierra Institute - Request for X100 Course Designation

April 7, 2014

UC Davis Extension has requested an X100 designation for its Sierra Institute courses. The Sierra Institute was previously offered by UC Santa Cruz and was recently transferred to UC Davis Extension. The program engages undergraduate students. Therefore, review of the request has been extended to committees beyond Courses of Instruction.

Council of School & College Faculty Chairs (LS: SOC SCI)

March 3, 2014 4:43 PM

No response at this time.

Graduate Council

February 24, 2014 11:23 AM

No response at this time.

Undergraduate Council

March 27, 2014 9:30 AM

Undergraduate Council Response for Sierra Institute Request for X100 Course Designation

The Undergraduate Council approves UC Davis Extension's request for X100 designations for its Sierra Institute Courses, with the understanding that Extension will follow Regulation 800 A guidelines for instructors of record.