While it did not bear directly on graduate education, Council was very impressed with this submission. It was deemed to be very thorough, well-written, and modest in its claims. We suggest that it might serve well as a template for other programs planning similar actions.

Planning & Budget

CPB agrees with the Proposal to Consolidate the Programs of Film Studies and Technocultural Studies. The faculty affected within the two programs agree that it will be a good fit to consolidate and the proposal makes sense from the point of view of academic planning.

Undergraduate Council

March 14, 2011 1:55 PM

Undergraduate Council (UGC) has reviewed the proposal to consolidate Film Studies and Technocultural Studies and firmly endorses the consolidation of the two programs as presented in the proposal.
