The Committee on Academic Personnel – Oversight Committee (CAP) advises the Vice Provost for Academic Personnel on promotions, appointments, terminations, multiyear accelerations within rank that involve skipping a step, high-level merit actions, third year deferrals, five-year reviews, and appraisals. CAP also recommends membership of ad hoc committees, which are appointed by the Vice Provost. Further, CAP advises both the Academic Senate and the Vice Provost on academic personnel matters as they arise. CAP appoints and directs the Faculty Personnel Committees (FPCs) that advise the Deans on redelegated personnel actions. See Appendix I for a list of CAP’s principal tasks.

Faculty Advancement Criteria

CAP evaluates candidate files according to guidelines established in the Academic Personnel Manual (APM). CAP’s mandate is to assure fair and equitable treatment of all faculty while ensuring that high standards of scholarship are maintained across the campus. Its goal is to apply fair, objective, and uniform standards of evaluation across the disciplines, recognizing the variability of measures of accomplishment and success from one discipline to another. Teaching, research or creative activity, service, and professional competence are evaluated.

CAP bases its judgments on documents provided in the formal personnel evaluation process, including documents contained in each candidate’s dossier, evaluations by departmental faculty and the Chair, commentaries from the Dean, and when appropriate, assessments from external evaluators. CAP may also get input from a three-person ad hoc committee appointed by the Vice Provost--Academic Personnel following CAP's recommendations.

The evaluation criteria are set out in the APM (APM-210, http://www.ucop.edu/acadadv/acadpers/apm/sec2-pdf.html). CAP’s judgments are guided by the wording of the APM, according to which the “indispensable qualification” for advancement at all levels is "superior intellectual attainment, as evidenced both in teaching and in research or other creative achievement.” CAP typically recommends advancement of a faculty member after the normal period at rank and step on the basis of a record of balanced accomplishment in research and/or creative activity, teaching, and service. Alternatively, CAP might make a favorable recommendation when it judges the performance to be well above expectations in one category although it was below expectations in another, as appropriate to rank and step. Time spent on an activity is not considered to be a substitute for accomplishment. CAP does not use time in service (except for deferrals) or health or personal issues in judging merit advancements.

CAP’s evaluation of research reported in peer-reviewed publications (and in other venues) and of creative work presented in many forms and venues is based principally on the originality, creativity, and impact of the work as judged by peers. CAP’s primary criteria for the evaluation of teaching are effectiveness and impact, as well as the candidate's command of his or her subject, scholarly growth, and presentation of material in ways that help students to think critically, independently, and creatively. Advising and mentoring activities, and student evaluations are given substantial weight in judging teaching performance. CAP is also influenced by the amount, variety, and difficulty of teaching. In evaluating service, CAP assesses the impact and outcome of the activities.

The files that were forwarded to CAP were mostly well prepared, but some files provided little balanced analysis or evaluative or critical insight (e.g., failing to state the goals and/or significance of the candidate’s activity); sometimes the information was incomplete. Evaluations of the impact of service activity were frequently missing. Descriptions of administrative functions seldom came to CAP with sufficient documentation of effectiveness or impact to be useful.

Pace of Activity

During the 2004-05 academic year (September through August), CAP met 39 times and considered 427 personnel actions. CAP also provided advice on numerous other issues related to academic personnel. The normal turnaround time for agenda items remained two weeks.

Ad Hoc Committees

Review by a campus ad hoc committee may be required in cases of major advancements (promotion to the Associate Professor and full Professor level, and merits to Professor, Step VI, and Above Scale) and for appointments with tenure. A total of 190 cases fell into this category in 2004-05. CAP’s membership reflects the variety of disciplines represented on campus; nevertheless, CAP looks to campus ad hoc committees for highly specialized expertise. CAP proposed ad hoc committees in 40 cases, and thanks the faculty members who served on at least one ad hoc committee for giving so generously of their time and for the high quality and the objectivity of their evaluations and reports.

Observers

To acquaint new faculty with the personnel process, it has been policy to appoint Assistant Professors (Steps III and IV) as observers to ad hoc committees on promotions to Associate Professor or Professor. During the 2004-05 academic year, 35 assistant professors were appointed by the Vice Provost to serve as non-voting observers on ad hoc committees.

Academic Personnel Actions, 2004-2005

Table 1 provides a summary of CAP’s deliberations by category for the past academic year. CAP considered 85 appointments, 103 promotions, 127 merit actions, 54 appraisals, and 58 other actions. Forty of these actions were referred to ad hoc committees (Table 2).

Appointments: CAP continued to streamline the personnel process without compromising the tenets of shared governance. Using a fast-track process, CAP reviewed 49 new appointments and made recommendations to the Vice Provost. This process helps the campus compete more effectively with comparable institutions in an increasingly competitive environment. In four cases, CAP recommended appointment at a step higher than that originally proposed in order to address any potential equity problems in advance. CAP believes this process is working well.

Promotions: With respect to promotions to Associate Professor, CAP recommended promotion in 44 of 56 cases (Table 3). In four of these cases, CAP recommended a further acceleration of the candidate than was requested. In 47 cases, the faculty members were promoted by the administration. Two cases are pending (both supported by CAP).

CAP supported 34 of 47 promotion actions to full Professor (Table 4). In four of these cases CAP recommended a further acceleration than was requested at earlier levels of review. The administration promoted 39 faculty members to full Professor.

High Level Merit Increases: CAP considered 37 actions for advancement to Professor, Step VI and supported 31 of these cases for advancement (Table 5). The administration gave a merit increase to Step VI (or above) in 34 of these cases. There were a total of 14 requests for advancement to Above Scale (Table 6). CAP supported advancement in 12 cases. The administration granted advancement in these 12 cases. CAP recommended five of eleven proposed merit actions within Professor, Above Scale (Table 7). The administration granted eight merit increases.

Other Merit Actions: CAP also considered merit actions within rank at the Assistant Professor, Associate Professor and Professor ranks. For the rank of Professor or Lecturer SOE, CAP considered a total of 35 actions (Table 8). CAP supported 29, including advancement in addition to that requested by the faculty member in 4 cases. The administration granted merit increases in 33 cases, with one case pending (which CAP opposed). At the Assistant and Associate levels, CAP reviewed a total of 18 proposed merit actions (Table 9). CAP supported all 18 actions, and the administration concurred.

Advancement to Associate Professor, Step IV: In previous years, it has been policy that a faculty member who had spent 6 years at the Associate rank would be considered for promotion and would not be eligible for a merit increase to Associate Professor, Step IV except under special circumstances. This policy was revised. Departments may now ask the Vice Provost—Academic Personnel, for permission to submit a merit to Step IV in lieu of a promotion with strong justification. The request must clearly explain why recommending a merit to Step IV is appropriate even though the faculty member has already spent 6 or more years at the Associate rank. One justification for a merit to Step IV is that the faculty member is close to meeting the requirements for promotion – i.e., that submission of a promotion action will occur no later than 3 years hence. An example of when consideration for merit may be appropriate is when a submitted book manuscript only requires minor revision before it would be considered “in press”.

Career Equity Reviews: To address potential inequities at both the point of hire and/or during a faculty member’s advancement, a new program called Career Equity Review was initiated and implemented during the 2003-04 academic year. Career equity reviews consider the entire career record of the individual to determine if current placement on the academic ladder is consistent with faculty at equal and higher rank and step. If the candidate’s performance is substantially the same as that of the majority of compared faculty members holding the same rank and step, the review will indicate that the candidate is being treated equitably. If, however, the candidate’s performance is essentially equal or superior to the performance of the majority of compared faculty holding a higher rank or step, a recommendation for an appropriate accelerated advancement or equity adjustment will be made. Requests for career equity review can be initiated by individual faculty members, department chairs, deans, the Vice Provost—Academic Personnel, Faculty Personnel Committees or by CAP.
conducted 12 career equity reviews that were initiated by faculty (Table 10). Out of these, CAP recommended an equity adjustment in five cases. CAP also routinely performs a career equity review for every major advancement.

Five-Year Reviews: CAP made 10 five-year reviews, recommending one “advancement,” seven “performance satisfactory, no advancement,” and two “performance unsatisfactory, no advancement.”

Initial Continuing Appointments: CAP reviewed and made recommendations on 17 initial continuing non-Senate appointments in 2004-05. CAP made favorable recommendations for an initial continuing appointment in 16 of these cases. The administration gave 16 initial continuing appointments, with one case pending (which CAP supported). Teaching excellence is a requirement for a continuing appointment.

Faculty Personnel Committees: Faculty Personnel Committees (FPCs) advise the deans with personnel actions redelegated to the deans. In 2004-05, these actions included: Appointment of Assistant Professor, Step I, II, and III; most normal and accelerated merit actions that do not skip a step up to and including Professor, Step IX, with the exception of merit increases to Professor, Step VI; most normal merit actions for Lecturers and Senior Lecturers with Security of Employment; and Unit 18 actions (including appointments and reappointments of Lecturers and Senior Lecturers without Security of Employment). The FPCs reviewed 322 cases (Table 11). In addition, the Committees conducted 54 appraisals of junior faculty which were then forwarded to CAP for further evaluation.

CAP continues to believe that the interests of both the University and of individual Academic Senate colleagues require that confidentiality govern the personnel process. At the same time, CAP believes that the process itself should be transparent to individual candidates for advancement and promotion. Such transparency is an integral part of peer review and helps ensure that these candidates understand the basis for decisions about their personnel actions. Accordingly, CAP reaffirms the importance of the principle (embodied in current policy) that each candidate for advancement or promotion automatically receive his or her own copy of the comments on his/her personnel action, whatever the outcome of the action. These comments include those made by CAP and the FPCs, along with the comments of Chairs/Directors, Deans, and ad hoc committees.

FPCs are appointed by CAP upon the recommendation of the Executive Committees of the colleges, schools, and divisions (Appendix II). CAP appreciates the dedicated efforts and hard work of the members of these Committees.

University Committee On Academic Personnel (UCAP): Anna Maria Busse Berger served as a member of the University Committee on Academic Personnel, which held several meetings throughout the academic year. The Office of the President, UCAP members, or other UC Academic Senate committees and officers bring issues to the attention of UCAP. A primary function of this systemwide committee is to facilitate the exchange of information among campuses. Accordingly, CAP was regularly informed of UCAP discussions and through its representative provided input into such discussions, when appropriate. UCAP addressed a broad range of issues, among which were discussions of the report of the Professorial Step System Task Force, discussion of electronic publication and scholarly communication, and amendments to the APM.
Other Policy Matters: During 2004-05, CAP commented on several campus or Universitywide policy matters. CAP made appointments to all of the School and College Faculty Personnel Committees based upon recommendations from Faculty Executive Committees.

CAP reviewed various other items, including the following:

- Safety and health policy
- Air Quality Resource Center
- Proposed revisions to the APM regarding sick leave, medical separation and leaves of absence
- Proposal to discontinue the undergraduate program in Civil Engineering/ Materials Science and Engineering
- Proposed revisions to APM 210-1-3-d, 240, 245, Bylaw 34, Bylaw 336
- Proposed amendment to Senate Regulation 600B
- Internationalizing the curriculum
- Proposed Science & Technology major
- Endowed Chair policy
- Proposed transfer of Design Program to HArCS
- Several requests to assess particular voting procedures in departments
Acknowledgments

We thank our staff assistant, Solomon Bekele, for his efficient and professional service, and Diana Howard for her efforts on behalf of ad hoc committees. We also thank the members of the Faculty Personnel Committees for their hard work, and the faculty who served on ad hoc committees this academic year.
