Undergraduate Council and Subcommittees

Why are Program Review and GE Assessment Important?

- Responsibility for oversight of curriculum and education policy was granted to the Senate by the Regents—the very core of Shared Governance
- A time for faculty to reflect and discuss instructional quality, learning outcomes, equity, access, and inclusion
- An opportunity for programs to update and assess the coherence of their curriculum, including future development of the major and minor
- Crucial pillar of maintaining WASC accreditation
- A discussion where reviewers invite and listen to every faculty voice
- Your chance to communicate what resources your program needs to achieve or maintain excellence

Program Review and Campus Budget Process:

Conversations about program reviews don't stop after the program review closure process—they have some teeth!

1. The campus Administration responds in writing to the recommendations in the program review reports and related Senate committee recommendations
2. Colleges/schools use information from recent program reviews when filling out annual campus budget questionnaires
3. These budget questionnaire responses are reviewed by the Faculty Executive Committees, the Committee on Planning and Budget, and campus Administration

General Education Assessment

General Education Assessment

- Current UC Davis General Education (GE) requirements became effective during the Fall Quarter 2011 with minimum elements for the certification of general education courses. This process has been adopted as a result of past WASC review recommendations.
- Current GE requirements, literacy interpretations, and minimum elements can be found at: <https://ge.ucdavis.edu/faculty-staff-resources>
- The GE Assessment consists of:
 - I. GE Committees assessment of specific courses, including assessment of student work.
 - II. Program self-assessment of all courses with GE literacies.

I. GE Committee Assessment of Specific Courses

- The GE Committee specifies courses for GE Committee assessment. Programs can access the list of courses via the GE Committee website, within their General instructions and specific data request document.
<https://academicsenate.ucdavis.edu/committees/undergraduate-council/general-education>
- Departments are asked to collect assessment materials in Spring Quarter, Summer Sessions, and/or Fall Quarter 2021, depending on which term the specific courses will be offered.
- Programs must review their specific course lists before the beginning of Spring Quarter, to ensure that all the specific courses will be offered in spring, summer, or fall of 2021 and reach out to Theresa with any questions.

I. GE Committee Assessment of Specific Courses

The Committee requests assessment materials from the specific course.

Requested data includes:

- A statement (maximum of one page) explaining how course meets the minimum elements of the literacy
- Representative assignments which reflect each of the approved literacies
- Three pieces of graded student work (with names redacted) from that assignment. The student work samples should consist of one average, one below average, and one above average.
- The course syllabus

GE Committee assessment of the specific courses will consider whether the submitted materials demonstrate that the course under review satisfies each of the minimum elements for each literacy.

II. Program Self-Assessment of All GE Literacy Courses

- The GE Committee asks programs to self-assess all courses with GE literacies to ensure that the courses continue to satisfy the minimum elements for those literacies.
- An assessment table will be provided to the programs via the GE Committee webpage, titled Program self-assessment of all GE courses
<https://academicsenate.ucdavis.edu/committees/undergraduate-council/general-education>

About

The General Education Subcommittee supervises the General Education (GE) program by establishing criteria that govern certification of courses for the GE program; periodically reviewing courses that are approved for GE credit; actively promoting the development of new GE courses; and continually reviewing the effectiveness of the GE program.

II. Program Self-Assessment of All GE Literacy Courses

GE has eight literacy categories:

- Writing Experience (WE)
- Oral Skills Literacy (OL)
- American Cultures, Governance & History (ACGH)
- World Cultures (WC)
- Quantitative Literacy (QL)
- Scientific Literacy (SL)
- Domestic Diversity (DD)
- Visual Literacy (VL)

Descriptions of these literacies can be found at: <https://ge.ucdavis.edu/faculty-staff-resources>

II. Program Self-Assessment of All GE Literacy Courses

- The program chair should assign self-review of each course to the instructor of that course. If there are multiple instructors for a course, one instructor should coordinate the response for that course. The name and email address of the instructor should be reported on the table.
- The assessment table asks faculty to determine whether the course meets the minimum elements for the currently approved literacy(ies).
 - If not:
 - Will the course be revised to meet minimum elements for the currently approved literacy(ies), or
 - Will the course form be modified and resubmitted in ICMS to remove GE literacy designations?

General Education Assessment - Next Steps

What does the GE Committee after receiving the materials?

- The GE committee will review all submitted materials and write a letter to each program noting observations, suggesting improvements, and indicating their assessment of each specific course. The letters are reviewed by UGC, then sent to the programs and the Provost.
- The GE committee will also write an overall summary of GE assessment for those programs in the cluster to the Provost.

General Education Assessment - Next Steps

What does the program do after receiving the letter from the GE Committee?

- If the GE Committee and the self-assessment found that all reviewed courses meet the minimum elements of the approved literacies, no follow up is necessary.

General Education Assessment - Next Steps

What does the GE Committee do after receiving the materials?

- If the GE Committee or the self-assessment found that one or more of the reviewed courses does not demonstrate the minimum elements of the approved literacies, the committee will request a letter of response.
- If a letter of response is not received, or if the letter of response does not adequately address GECs concerns, the documents are forwarded to the Committee on Courses of Instruction (COCI) for further action.
- COCI has a streamlined process to remove the literacy designation if the GE Committee or program finds that a course does not meet the minimum elements for the literacy:

About

The Undergraduate Instruction and Program Review (UIPR) Subcommittee studies the effectiveness and efficiency of undergraduate instruction at UC Davis, and spearheads efforts to foster, recognize, and reward good teaching, and make recommendations for improvements. UIPR determines if established educational objectives for programs have been meaningfully addressed.

Review Team (RT) Process

Stages of the Review Team

Review Team (RT) Selection

Conflict of Interest

- Potential review team members will be asked to disclose any potential conflicts of interest. In the case of a perceived conflict of interest, nominees may still be submitted along with an explanation of the potential conflict.
- The UIPR Committee will review the information and determine if a meaningful conflict of interest exists.
- If the disclosed conflict appears likely to create appreciable bias, UIPR will recruit an alternative reviewer.

Conflict of Interest

External Reviewer Nominees can be from any college or university outside of UC Davis, or from other institutions, but cannot engage in the following ways with the program/program faculty:

- Have active collaboration in teaching or research
- Have co-authored of any research publications within the past five years
- Be currently listed as a co-PI on a proposed grant or contract
- Be co-instructor on a proposed course
- Been a departmental colleague with, student of, or supervisor for any program faculty

Conflict of Interest

UC Davis Reviewer Nominees should be Academic Senate members on the UC Davis campus with expertise appropriate for assessing the program being reviewed, but who are not:

- Members of the undergraduate program under review
- Current or previous instructors in the program under review
- Collaborators in research, grants, or contracts with any program faculty in the past five years.

Data Provided to Programs via Tableau

- Program data is provided by Budget and Institutional Analysis (BIA) via Tableau.
- Data includes instructors and students, survey data from current students and recent graduates, and general information from the course catalog.
- Data is presented to allow for comparisons to other programs in the same cluster as well as comparisons to the college and campus.
- BIA will work with the departments and IET to make sure that all members of the review teams can access the online data.
- BIA will work directly with some programs to ensure we have the correct instructors and courses.

8. EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVES AND ASSESSMENT

Question: How does the program monitor and evaluate its success in achieving its Program Learning Outcomes (section 1)?

Specifically:

- a) Please confirm that the PLOs are clearly listed in an easily accessible location on the program website and provide the URL for that website.
- b) Please provide a program curriculum matrix or map which identifies the required courses in which each PLO is specifically addressed and assessed. Attach sample syllabi for up to six of the required core courses for the major. An additional resource for completing the curriculum Map/Matrix is available on the UIPRC website.
- c) What unit (committee or officer) in your program is responsible for collecting and analyzing data on student progress toward PLOs?
- d) Please list the direct evidence of student learning used to assess student achievement of PLOs. Examples of direct evidence include projects, scores from exams or quizzes, and written work. For this data, describe the methodology for sample selection and size.
- e) Please list sources of indirect data used to assess student achievement of PLOs. Examples of indirect data include student evaluations, * peer evaluation of teaching,  and the survey data from current students and graduates provided for this review.
- f) In what ways do the results of this self-review reveal particular areas of strength or weakness in student progress toward achieving PLOs?
- g) What changes will the program make based on the results of the program assessment of student learning?

Path A: Your Adventure Starts NOW (or very soon)

A

- Start now. We recommend connecting with us—before the end of April—to review your Program Learning Outcomes (PLOs) so that they support the rest of the process.
- Benefit:
 - ✓ We can coach you to collect evidence of student learning in Spring 2021.
 - ✓ You will have ample time to analyze & interpret the evidence of student learning over the summer.

Path B: Your Adventure Starts Later

- Start in the summer.
- If you bring together a team for a one-to-two day retreat, we can help you set up for Fall data collection.
- Benefit: You will have ample time to prepare for collecting evidence of student learning.

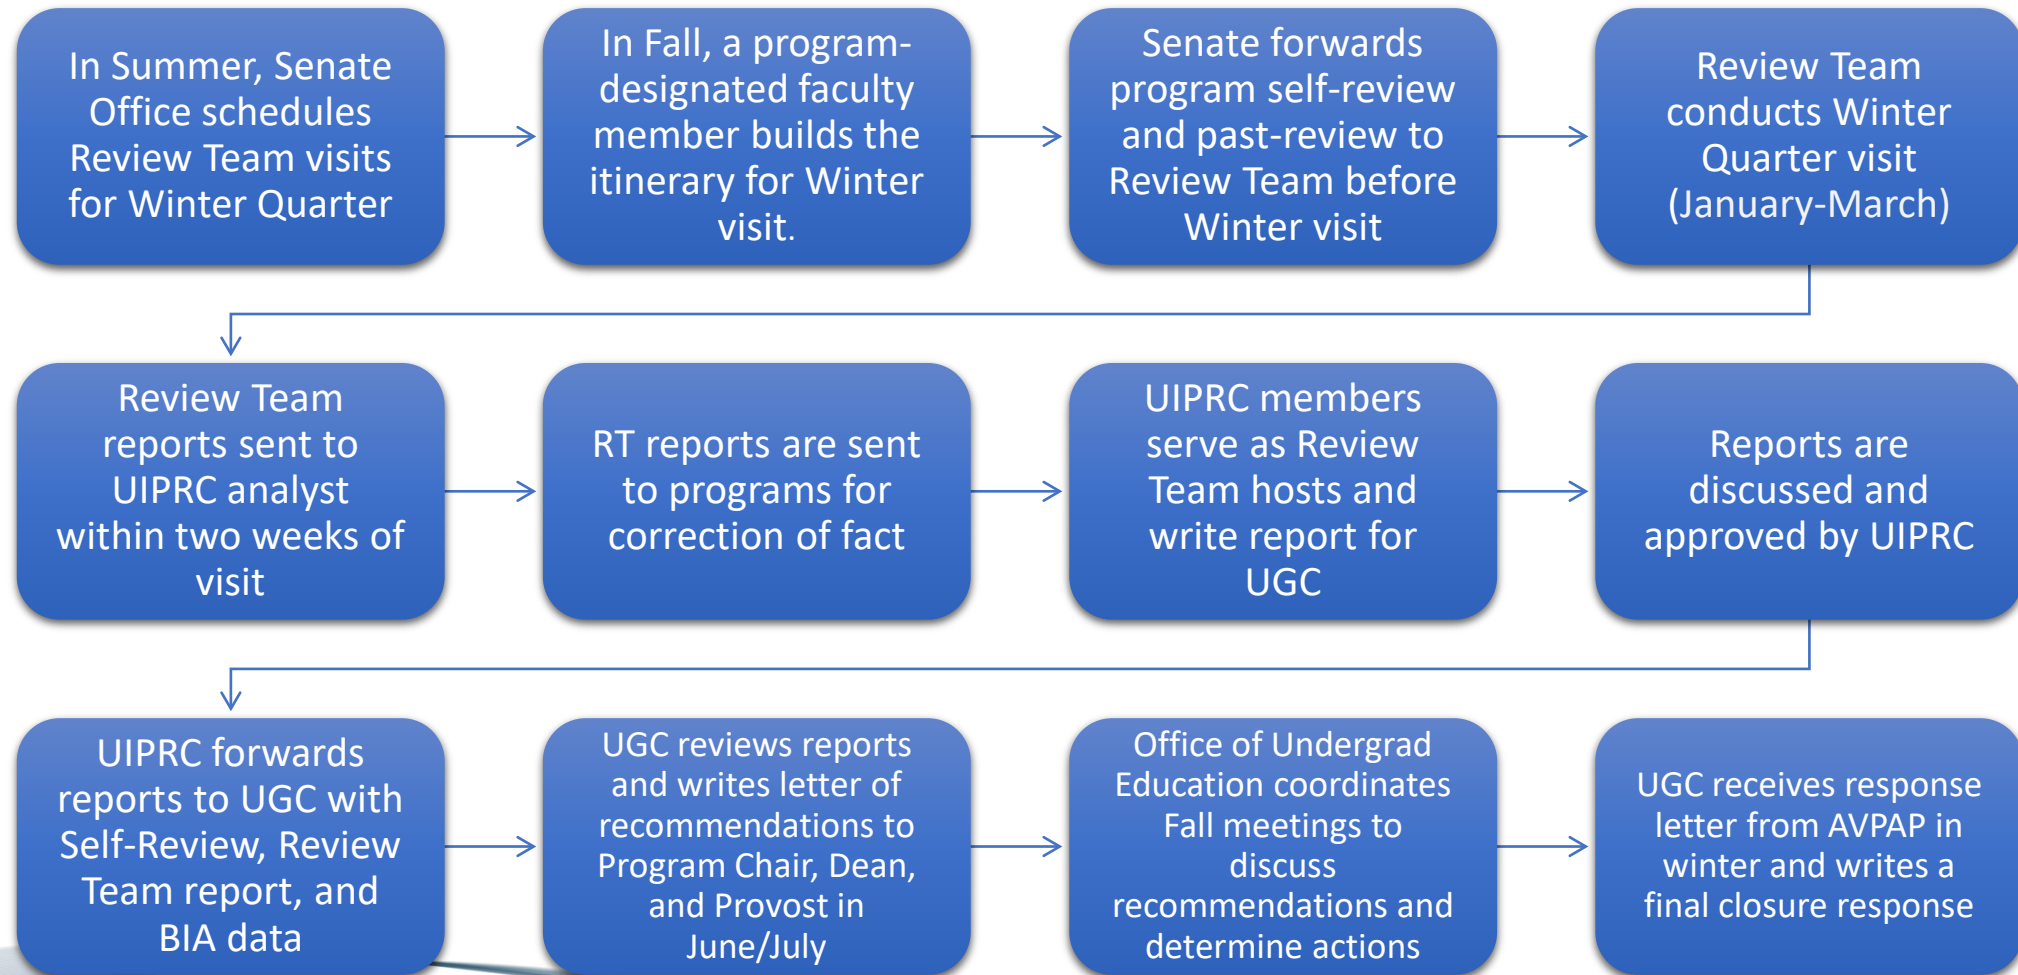

We're excited to work with you!

Review Visit and Post Visit Process

Program Review and the Office of Undergraduate Education

- Matt Traxler, Associate Vice Provost for Academic Planning
- Will meet with Program Chairs and Deans in Fall 2022 to discuss program review reports and draft the response to UGC; an opportunity for Program Chairs to have a focused conversation with their deans about undergraduate instruction
- Contributions of program review to accreditation

Closing Each Cluster

- UIPR will provide UGC a report, the Cluster 7 Summary Report, regarding trends within the cluster following completion of all program reviews.
- UGC will review and approve the report and send to the Provost.
