

COE Review Policy approved by UGC February 20, 2015

UIPR Committee review of each COE undergraduate program shall be scheduled to occur subsequent to ABET reviews, and shall be based on the following documents for each program:

- a) The final ABET self-study report; the ABET Summary of Accreditation Action Final Statement; and, the ABET Final Report Shortcoming Overview;
- b) U.C. Davis BIA statistics for the program;
- c) A program self-review for General Education, as per the instructions of the General Education Committee of the U.C. Davis Undergraduate Council;
- d) A correspondence map prepared by the COE program that relates the ABET self-study report content to the elements of the UIPR Self-Review documentation.
- e) A short statement (not to exceed one page) summarizing the future plans for the program that will briefly address proposed changes to the instructional program, program needs, or other pertinent visions for the program.
